THIS IS AN SAMPLE FORM

Department of Homeland Security U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the U.S.) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work eligible individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. All employees, citizens and noncitizens, hired after November 6, 2006 and working in the United States must complete a Form I-9. OMB No. 215-01; Expires 10/16/09

Preparer/Translator Certification. The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his/her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally. Form I-9 (Rev. 10/16/08) Please read all instructions carefully before completing this form. Instructions When Should the Form I-9 Be Used? What Is the Purpose of This Form? The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and non-citizen) hired after November 6, 2006 is authorized to work in the United States. Section 2, Employer: For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers or farm labor contractors. Filling Out the Form I-9 document(s) within three business days, they must present a receipt for the application of the document(s) within three business days and the actual document(s) within sixty (60) days. However, if employers hire individuals for a duration of less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers must record: Section 1, Employee: This part of the form must be completed at the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed. 1. Document title; 2. Issuing authority; 3. Document number; 4. Expiration date, if any; and 5. The date employment begins. Employers must sign and date the certification. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. These photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with the Form I-9. However, employers are still responsible for completing and retaining the Form I-9. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment eligibility within five (5) business days of the date employment begins. If employees are authorized to work, but are unable to present the required Section 3, Updating and Re-verification: Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or re-verifying the Form I-9. Employers must re-verify employment eligibility of their employees on or before the expiration date recorded in Section 1. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. B. If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still eligible to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block C. If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (re-verification), complete Block B and A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/re-verified, complete Block D.1. Examine any document that reflects that the employee is authorized to work in the U.S. (see List A or C); 2. Record the document title, document number and expiration date (if any) in Block E, and 3. Complete the signature block.

USCIS Forms and Information What Is the Filing Fee? There is no associated filing fee for completing the Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. The Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below. The authority for collecting this information is the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1998, Pub. L. 42-99 (8 USC 225-1). Privacy Act Notice This information is for employers to verify the eligibility of individuals for employment to preclude the unlawful hiring, or recruiting or referring for a fee, of aliens who are not authorized to work in the United States. This information will be used by employers as a record of their basis for determining eligibility of an employee to work in the United States. The form will be kept by the employer and made available for inspection by officials of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Department of Labor and Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices. Submission of the information required in this form is voluntary. However, an individual may not begin employment unless this form is completed, since employers are subject to civil or criminal penalties if they do not comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can be easily understood and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex. Accordingly, the reporting burden for this collection of information is computed as follows: 1) learning about this form, and completing the form, 1004A; 2) assembling and filing (recordkeeping) the form, 3 minutes, for an average of 12 minutes per response. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this burden estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., 3rd Floor, Suite 3008, Washington, DC 20529. OMB No. 5478-12A. Paperwork Reduction Act A blank Form I-9 may be reproduced, provided both sides are copied. The Instructions must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain completed Forms I-9 for three (3) years after the date of hire or one (1) year after the date employment ends, whichever is later. Photocopying and Retaining the Form I-9 The Form I-9 may be signed and retained electronically, as authorized in Department of Homeland Security regulations at 5 CFR Section 8.2.C§
